

All spiritual blessing (2/6/22)

Sermon Description: An online trend going around is “Tell me without telling me.” Basically, you don’t state that you are a pet owner, or taco lover, or parent, or overly emotional. Instead you share something visible which demonstrates it. The passage we’re in is, arguably, the best in the Bible at telling people (1) God is great, (2) God’s actions (salvation!) are critical, and (3) We are the beneficiaries of his greatness and salvation (grace!). How can you tell them without telling them about God’s great salvation? Just show them Eph. 1!

Main Passage: Ephesians 1:3-14

Title: All spiritual blessing

Topics: Character of God > Goodness of God

Tags: chosen, predestined, adoption, redemption

Questions to consider:

- In the wake of this three-week study, if you were to have only Eph. 1:3-14, do you think you’d have enough information to share the gospel of Jesus Christ with a neighbor? Why or why not?
- Are you more inclined to worship him on account of looking more closely at this passage? Why or why not?
- Of the blessings mentioned, which resonated with you most deeply? Would you have time right now to thank and praise God for that?

Week #4

“Tell me without telling me” trend

Introduction: Again?! Round 3 of 3 in this passage...then, I promise, we’ll move on!

Ephesians 1:3–14

³Praise be to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us in the heavenly realms with every spiritual blessing in Christ. ⁴For he chose us in him before the creation of the world to be holy and blameless in his sight. In love ⁵he predestined us for adoption to sonship through Jesus Christ, in accordance with his pleasure and will—⁶to the praise of his glorious grace, which he has freely given us in the One he loves. ⁷In him we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, in accordance with the riches of God’s grace ⁸that he lavished on us. With all wisdom and understanding, ⁹he made known to us the mystery of his will according to his good pleasure, which he purposed in Christ, ¹⁰to be put into effect when the times reach their fulfillment—to bring unity to all things in heaven and on earth under Christ. ¹¹In him we were also chosen, having been predestined according to the plan of him who works out everything in conformity with the purpose of his will, ¹²in order that we, who were the first to put our hope in Christ, might be for the praise of his glory. ¹³And you also were included in Christ when you heard the message of truth, the gospel of your salvation. When you believed, you were marked in him with a seal, the promised Holy Spirit, ¹⁴who is a deposit guaranteeing our inheritance until the redemption of those who are God's possession—to the praise of his glory.

Week #1: Introduction to the book of Ephesians

Week #2: (Week 1 of 3 in Eph. 1:3-14) I'm okay in Jesus. A study of the expression "In Christ."

Week #3: (Week 2 of 3 in Eph. 1:3-14) Great is our God! Don't unsee him.

Jackie Hilly Perry: If God is holy, then he can't sin. If God can't sin, then he can't sin against me. If he can't sin against me, shouldn't that make him the most trustworthy being there is?

This week we will retrace our steps from last week. But, instead of looking at the subject (God) and verbs (God's actions), we will focus on all of the qualifiers of his work. How does God act? What means does he utilize? To whom are these actions directed? What are the impact of God's actions on that group? This will take us into deeper waters...but, if we hang in there, God will show us deeper truths about who he is and all he has done.

When we walk through the QUICK RECAP sections, we see God! “Tell me without telling me how great your God is.” Ephesians 1!!!!

“Christianity is not primarily about lifestyle change; it is about knowing God. To know and grow to enjoy him is what we are saved for... Nonetheless, getting to know God better does actually make for far more profound and practical change as well. Knowing the love of God is the very thing that makes us loving. Sensing the desirability of God alters our preferences and inclinations, the things that drive our behavior: We begin to want God more than anything else.”

Michael Reeves - Delighting in the Trinity: An Introduction to the Christian Faith

God is worthy to be praised!!

Romans 11:33–36 ³³Oh, the depth of the riches of the wisdom and knowledge of God! How unsearchable his judgments, and his paths beyond tracing out! ³⁴“Who has known the mind of the Lord? Or who has been his counselor?” ³⁵“Who has ever given to God, that God should repay them?” ³⁶For from him and through him and for him are all things. To him be the glory forever! Amen.
